

New Haven 13th April 1818—

Dr Sir

I recd. your fav. of 9th (relative to the business with Reynolds) / yesterday, Sunday—

I have made an arrangement with my friend Jonathan S. Porter Esq who will leave this place in the Steam Boat this evening for N. York, to call on you and settle that unpleasant business, as you <sup>& he</sup> shall think is right. He will probably call on you tomorrow—

I am very sorry you should have had so much trouble in this affair— The conduct of Reynolds has been shameful— so far from cutting files according to sample— they were cut in such a manner I could not use them & I now have a considerable ~~part~~ of them on hand— useless—

I shall send Reynolds' letters by Mr Porter by which it will appear that he agreed to cut them at a price different from that which he demanded—

I hope you have not made your self personally liable in this business— Mr Porter will explain to you farther—in the mean time I remain Yr friend & Ob<sup>d</sup> Servt.
